

Christopher Bell
Executive Chairman
Brighton Education Group

Christopher Bell, BA, PGCE, MSc, is an international education business owner and manager with a professional background in English Language Teaching. He has over 30 years experience in the business of international education as a teacher, university lecturer, teacher trainer, education materials developer, international schools headmaster/principal and education manager and consultant mainly in Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei, Spain, the UK and USA. In Malaysia he has lived and worked in Malacca, Sarawak, Negeri Sembilan, and Kedah.

He is Executive Chairman of the Brighton Education Group, which develops and manages education teaching and learning improvement projects for government schools, owns and manages international schools and preschools, and provides supplementary education and training services. He and his Malaysian wife live in Seremban and have two adult sons.