

This workshop will discuss Giatmara's training programmes. Giatmara is a centre that provides training on technical skills. Giatmara's core training programmes are targeted to the youth and local community surrounding individual centre. The programmes are created based on the concepts of modular training; hands-on and employable skills that are in tune with market needs and provided free of charge. This duration of the programmes vary from 6-12 months.