Company Description:

The SSAT is a networks organisation that works across 5,500 affiliates including schools and further and higher education institutions in 35 countries across the world. Our international arm, iNet, unites a wide variety of educational networks into a single unifying force, transforming education globally.

Student achievement and raising standards are central to our work and educational practitioners play leading roles in directing, designing and delivering our programmes. Our work is closely aligned to international education policy and we deliver an increasing number of high profile programmes linked to our principal areas of business. These include:

- curriculum design and support
- applied (vocational) learning
- professional development for teachers and principals
- school leadership programmes
- personalising learning
- enterprise education
