

Toni Padden
Headteacher
The Village International Education Centre

The Village International Education Centre is a non-profit making organisation which provides full and part-time education for children who are having difficulties in mainstream schools.